

St Simon † St Jude

Roman Catholic Church Streatham Hill

Sunday 3rd July 2016

14th Sunday Ordinary Time [Year C]

Remembering especially "Our Families"

WELCOME TO OUR SUNDAY MASS

Please join in with the words below in bold and follow the prayers of the Mass in the laminated guide or hymn book.

Entrance Antiphon:

Your merciful love, O God,
we have received in the midst of your temple.
Your praise, O God, like your name,
reaches the ends of the earth;
your right hand is filled with saving justice.

A reading from the prophet Isaiah [66:10-14]
Towards her I send flowing peace, like a river.

Responsorial Psalm [65]

Cry out with joy to God all the earth.

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Galatians [6:14-18]
The marks on my body are those of the Lord Jesus.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia
May the peace of Christ reign in your hearts, because it is for this that you were called together
as part of one body.
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke [10:1-12, 17-20]
Your peace will rest on that man.

At the preparation of the altar and gifts:

Our sacrificial giving is part of our participation at Mass and a sharing of the blessings God gives us. We take both our 1st and 2nd collections one after the other to give time for sharing God's gifts and space for reflection and prayer after Holy Communion. Our second collection today is for Our Parish Refurbishment Programme and next weekend for the Apostleship of the Sea. Thank you.

Communion antiphon:

Come to me, all who labour and are burdened,
and I will refresh you, says the Lord.

Reflection: God had created us so that we could belong to each other, God walking with us. He wanted us to be family with each other, God and us at home with each other. In Jesus Christ God presents Himself to us as family. Totally unique in all of the religions of mankind, past and present, Jesus reveals to us that God is a family of Persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. At the time of Jesus many considered that idea to be blasphemous and others to be absurd. No other religion or philosophy would ever dream of seeing God that way. It was and is astonishing that Jesus Christ invites us to enter in to that family and brings those who accept His invitation into that family of God. That is truly amazing and wondrous. Our first reading tells us of our spiritual home in the Lord's power and in the comfort of His presence as our Father. Again, the imagery is that of family. The Holy City of Jerusalem is the home of the Jews even unto today. For Christians Jerusalem has two meanings, one being the Church is our New Jerusalem, the other being the Jerusalem in our souls where we are the Temple, that place in which the Holy Spirit dwells, that holy place in which we find peace and comfort in the presence of God. In our earthly lives we all are in search of a home, that place where we live with those whom we love, that place where we love and are loved in return. Our lives and what we do in our lives are centred around a home. We work in order to have a home. We do not have a home in order to work. Jesus told the disciples to rejoice because you have found a home in my love; rejoice because you live in my presence. "We need to feel at home with Jesus. Spirituality. That is the will of God and that is what deep down in our hearts we want. This gospel takes us to a place that is far beyond simply doing out duty. Let us conform to God's will for us. In a sense He wants to make His home in us, in our hearts and souls. Knowing that God is a God of love we need to remind ourselves that God loves us as a good Father, a Father who has expectations of us.

PARISH MINISTRIES:

MASS REQUEST:

Would parishioners who wish Masses to be said for their intentions please try to book in good time.

Thank you.

Today we are celebrating our Annual Parish BBQ after the 10.30am Mass (which will be the only Mass today) and we will finish around 4pm. Let us also use this occasion to raise much needed funds for the works and maintenance our parish hall/presbytery. We are very grateful for your support and presence.

Enjoy this festive occasion.

May Sts. Simon and Jude bless and protect you.
