

St Simon † St Jude

Roman Catholic Church Streatham Hill

Sunday 2nd July 2017

13th Sunday Ordinary Time [Year A]

Remembering especially "Our families"

WELCOME TO OUR SUNDAY MASS

Please join in with the words below in bold and follow the prayers of the Mass in the laminated guide or hymn book.

Entrance Antiphon:

All peoples, clap your hands.

Cry to God with shouts of joy!

A reading from the second book of the Kings [4:8-11, 14-16]

This is a holy man of God, let him rest there.

Responsorial Psalm [88]

I will sing for ever of your love, O Lord.

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans [6:3-4, 8-11]

When we were baptised we went into the tomb with Christ, so that we too might live a new life.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia x2

Open or heart, O Lord,

to accept the words of your Son.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia x1

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew [10:37-42]

Anyone who does not take his cross is not worthy of me.

Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me.

At the preparation of the altar and gifts:

Our sacrificial giving is part of our participation at Mass and a sharing of the blessings God gives us. We take both our 1st and 2nd collections one after the other to give time for sharing God's gifts and space for reflection and prayer after Holy Communion. Our second collection today is for Peter's Pence. When we join together to produce the means which the Holy father and the Apostolic See needs to exercise works of charity and its service of the universal church.. Next weekend it is Sea Sunday and our collection will be for the Apostleship of the Sea.

Communion antiphon:

Bless the Lord, O my soul,

and all within me, his holy name.

Reflection. In the tradition of tribes who move from place to place to find new grazing lands for their cattle, hospitality becomes a matter of life and death. Their modern equivalent might be the migrant workers who leave home to find jobs in different areas and countries. All these people depend on welcome if they are to thrive, in the sacred tradition of Israel hospitality was regarded as one of the chief responsibilities of a caring people. The stranger, the outsider, the wayfarer, anyone outside his home territory- all were regarded as people who needed special care. As soon as Jesus is born Matthew portrays him in the Gospel as the one who is born into a place where he is not accepted. He has no security, and must be taken to Egypt for safety and shelter. At the beginning of his life Jesus is marked as the one who must depend on the hospitality of others, as an adult Jesus learns that he cannot depend on the acceptance of his own family when he begins his ministry as a prophet. He takes the road with his own bond of itinerant supporters. As they leave their own region of Galilee behind them, they become a travelling people who have to depend on others' hospitality to receive them and welcome the message. When Jesus is welcomed into towns and villages by people who see him as a holy messenger from God, the people receive a holy man's reward: the poor hear Good news, the sick are healed, and sinner comes to know the forgiveness of God. The people receive their reward for the hospitality of a faith that welcomes Jesus. One of the characteristics of the church is the generosity of the people towards their ministers and so many pastoral projects. Jesus says that responding to the cause of the Gospel. As Jesus tells his messengers: "anyone who welcomes you welcomes me: and those who welcome me welcome the one who sent me" in the end, it is God who is our guest.

PARISH MINISTRIES:

"As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace." 1 Peter 4:10

Welcoming Ministry. Thank you very much for all existing ministers of this ministry. The ministers help in handing out newsletters and hymn books, to find a seat for people with push chairs/prams and they can also be people to contact if parishioners need any help. We need new volunteers, if you can help please contact Fr. Habte. Thank you.

Our Annual Parish BBQ 2017 is next Sunday 9 July after the 10.30am Mass. This is our parish social event which brings us together as a community. Let us also use this occasion to raise much needed funds for the maintenance and renovation of church and facilities. We would be very grateful if as many of you could support us as possible. As usual we need your support.

Here are some ways in which you can help.

1. We need more new and unopened raffle prizes. If you prefer please donate some money so the committee can buy some extra prizes too.

2. We need volunteer chefs for the BBQ, the bar and for other areas too.

3. Donate cold food for those who don't eat meat or are vegetarian.

Finally, if you have volunteered to help on Sunday itself, please, if possible, come to the 6pm Mass on Saturday evening so that you will have plenty of time to prepare and to help in the hall on Sunday morning beforehand.

Be sure to check the sign-up sheets at the back of the church and see where you can help.

Next weekend 8-9 July is Sea Sunday. It is when we are asked to encourage prayer and financial contributions to support the work of the Apostleship of the Sea. The collection is vital for the future of the Apostleship of the Sea and their support to seafarers. For more information about the work of the AoS, please see their website: www.apostleshipofthesea.org.uk.

Confirmation & First Holy Communion Photographs.

The Photographs of the Confirmation and First Holy Communion days are now available for choice and to order in the Hall after Mass this Sunday 25 June. Please choose the photographs you would like developed and complete the order form then post the completed order through the presbytery letter box.

Jamie Ndah who is our parishioner and member of our social and fundraising committee who helps us getting raffle and concert ticket is currently fundraising for the children's charity The NSPCC and he has set up a Just Giving page with the link below.
