Entrance Antiphon:

Have mercy on me, O Lord,
for I cry to you all the day long.
O Lord, you are good and forgiving,
full of mercy to all who call to you.

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah [20:7-9]

The word is the Lord has meant insult for me.

Responsorial Psalm [62]

For you my soul is thirsting, O Lord my God.

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans [12:1-2]

Offer your bodies as a living sacrifice.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia x2
May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ
enlighten the eyes of our mind,
so that we can see what hope his call holds for us.
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia x1

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew [16:21-27]
If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself.

At the preparation of the altar and gifts:

Our sacrificial giving is part of our participation at Mass and a sharing of the blessings God gives us. We take both our 1st and 2nd collections one after the other to give time for sharing God's gifts and space for reflection and prayer after Holy Communion. Our second collection today is for our Parish Refurbishment Programme. Next weekend is Education Sunday and the collection will be for the Catholic Education Service. Thank you.

Communion antiphon:

How great is the goodness, Lord,
that you keep for those who fear you.

Reflection.

To understand Jesus means to understand the cross. The way of the Cross that Jesus outlines for himself is the way of renunciation that his followers are called to tread. Jesus faced suffering which could be conquered only if it was accepted. He faced rejection which could be transformed only if he assented to it. If the suffering was not to pass, it had to be endured: "For anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake will save it". The way of the cross which Jesus followed was one which passed through streets and markets, by the houses and palaces, by windows and doors. People went about their business while it happened. Suffering must run the course of the familiar. As Christians, we live in the assurance that our way of the cross does not go unnoticed. Jesus is our companion; he proves to be our companion; he proves to be our strength, his power is mighty in our weakness. If the cross is the price to be paid for love, then carrying it is love's proof in action. Jesus wants us to follow his way.

A big Thank you to Fr Enoch.

This year Fr. Enoch Usifo has been here with us in our parish for the second half of the month of August for a supply in my absence. We thank him for his pastoral service. He is now in St. Bede's parish, Clapham Park for the same service. He will visit us at the end of his this month before he moves back to Rome. Fr. Habte
