We Will Remember Them

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

These famous lines, written by Laurence Binyon in his 1914 poem For the Fallen, remind us, as they do each Remembrance Sunday, to think of the sacrifice of the countless men and women who gave their lives in the service of their country in the two World Wars and in the many conflicts since.

Sadly, war and conflict are still a tragic part of many people's lives throughout the world today. Yet, the sacrifice of the 'Fallen' is not in vain, as their memory serves to raise up people of peace in each new generation to forge a better world, striving to challenge the violence, injustice and greed that destroys so many lives.

In the parish of St. Simon and St. Jude we walk in the shadow of those parishioners who lost their lives in the bombing raids of World War II, of those who died in its battles and, in particular, of the twelve men of our parish who died in the 'Great War':

J.A. Andre Bouic	Cecil Kelly
Harry Connell	Louis Marin
John Connell	Gabriel Meyer
Edgar Conway	Francis Wood
Charles Hicks	Allen Yeatman
M. Francis Hecht	Bernard Yeatman

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION & CONFIRMATION

The closing date for applications for First Holy Communion is next week, on 16 November, with the first parents' meeting at 10am on 22 November and an additional Children's Mass on 23 November to welcome the First Holy Communion candidates. Please note: the Confirmation applications close on 14 December. Please see Fr Adrian after Mass to obtain application forms.

NOVEMBER LISTS

Please take the opportunity to write a list of remembrance for all you know who have died, as these names will be remembered at each Mass in November. If you wish, sheets are available for the lists in the porch. Please also consider making an offering for Masses to be said for these Holy Souls. Mass Intention envelopes are also available in the porch. Both the lists and Mass intentions should be placed in the collection box in the Sanctuary, but please only use an envelope if you are including a Mass Intention, as the lists can be posted directly. Thank you.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

It is important that we take time to remember and pray for all those who have died, not just in November, but throughout the year. With that in mind the picture board has been replaced with the Book of Remembrance which will be able to take many more names. The board has been moved to the crypt and can be visited there, although it is not possible to add any more pictures. Please take time to print the names of your loved ones according to the date they died as sheets are available for each month. When we have enough names these sheets will be printed for display, showing the anniversaries for each month.

PRAYING FOR THE SICK

Please remember that there is a file in the porch where you can request prayers for those in need at weekday and Sunday Masses: they are very much at the heart of the church and support us in their prayers as we do them.

SCHOOL APPLICATION REFERENCES

If your child is due to change schools next autumn please see Fr. Adrian to obtain a 'Parish Contact Sheet' so that the parish can have information in advance of the reference and so that he can arrange an appointment to see each family in turn.

SUPPORTING OUR PARISH COLLECTION

Please give what you can to the parish collections each week, as more money is spent in the upkeep of the church than we receive. If you can, please give upwards of one hour of your weekly income and please consider if you're able to help join one of the parish groups, e.g. counters, cleaners, refreshment team, etc. If you are a UK tax payer please also consider setting up a Gift Aid payment direct to the church bank account. Thank you for your generosity.
